

Alexander von Humboldt Association Annual Meeting
Friday 27 May 2005
Department of Earth Sciences, University of Cambridge

Programme

10:00	Professor Ekhard Salje Welcome and Introduction Introducing the Cambridge Environmental Initiative
10:30	Dr Mary Elise Sarotte Department of Politics, University of Cambridge An Opportunity Open to All Humboldtians: The Humboldt-Kolleg
10:45	Coffee
11:00	Professor Hans-F. Graf Department of Geography, University of Cambridge Climate Change and inherent variability modes
11:30	Dr Richard Harrison Department of Earth Sciences, University of Cambridge Mineral Magnetism at the Nanometer Scale
12:00	Lunch and tour of Sedgwick Museum
13:00	Annual General Meeting
14:00	Professor Jim Scott Department of Earth Sciences, University of Cambridge Ferroelectric devices
14:30	Professor Mark Warner Cavendish Laboratory, University of Cambridge Is the Classification of the States of Matter Complete?
15:00	Professor Martin Kusch Department of History and Philosophy of Science The Philosophy of Testimony
15:30	Dr Chris Young University of Cambridge Munich Olympics and modern Germany
16:00	Dr Ulrich Müller Departments of Experimental Psychology & Psychiatry, University of Cambridge Dopaminergic modulation of working memory and executive functions in humans
16:30	Dr Daria Santini St. Hilda's College, University of Oxford Greek Mythology in German Literature of the 1930s and 40s
17:00	Reception in the Sedgwick Museum of Earth Sciences